

Leading change

workshop

“You can’t have an adaptable organisation without adaptable people”

- Gary Hamel

Change management doesn’t work unless leaders do. Change leaders can make a huge difference in the way people feel during change, how they approach change, and how successful the change is.

Workshop outline

This one-day workshop will give you the tools to become a positive and empowering change leader. We explore:

Common change models

Understanding the common elements of change management methodologies and stages of change

Key change roles

Recognising and using key roles and stakeholders in your change process

Reactions to change

Identifying the common reactions to change and how to support people through change

Change communication

Crafting your message for impact and to facilitate change dialogues

Critical success factors

Factors to successfully implement change and build buy-in Making it stick

Strengthening change resilience, progressing change, and sustaining momentum

Outcomes

This workshop will build your understanding of change methodologies and terminology, grow your confidence in managing change, and provide you with practical tools to successfully implement change in the workplace

Who should attend?

If you are a leader guiding teams through transition, or looking to grow your leadership skills, this workshop is for you
